Audioscript

1. Boy: Today we're going to the book fair. What would you like to read, Sami?

Sami: I'd like to read a traditional book by an Egyptian writer from Egypt. It's a book of stories about a man who had a donkey. (picture b)

2. Girl: What would you like to buy at the Book Fair, Muna?

Muna: I'd like to read by a Lebanese writer from Lebanon. It's a book about bees.

Girl: I'd like to read that book, too. (picture d)

3. Boy: Ziad, What would you like to read?

Ziad: I'm not sure. I like the books by the Egyptian and Lebanese writers, but I'd like to read this book. It's about paper. It's by a Jordanian writer from Jordan. (picture c)

4. Girl: What would you like to read, Rola?

Rola: I like all of these books. But I'd prefer to read this book by an Emirati writer from the UAE. It's a book about a girl. She wants to be like her older sister. (picture a)

Girl: That's a great book.
