READING 2 (Items 5–10)(6 marks)Read the text. Then complete the task.Importance of Breakfast

Breakfast is an important meal because it gives you energy to start the day. We all agree that when you don't have a good breakfast, you feel hungry and eat cakes, biscuits or sweet before lunchtime. I think this type of food is bad for you because it is not very nutritious and has lots of sugar and fat.

Apart from providing us with energy, breakfast is a good source of important nutrients such as calcium, iron and B vitamins as well as protein and fiber. The body needs these essential nutrients and if these are missed at breakfast, they are difficult to be taken later in the day.

Breakfast restores glucose levels, an essential carbohydrate that is needed for the brain to work. In addition, eating breakfast can improve our memory and make us happier and more active. Moreover, breakfast helps students to learn better and behave well in the classroom. This can help to improve their grades at school. Just like any other organ in the body, the brain needs energy to work at its best.

To conclude, I think, breakfast is the most important meal of the day. It provides you with the energy and nutrients that lead to increase your concentration in the classroom.

Therefore, students should not miss breakfast at all.

You are going to hear a text about Ali's Holiday. Listen and for each item, write a short answer (not more than FOUR WORDS).

Two years ago, my family went to Turkey for the summer holiday. When we arrived at the hotel, we were very tired so we went straight to bed. The next morning we woke up excited to have our first tour in Istanbul. We had our breakfast in the hotel restaurant. The food was delicious and we enjoyed the Turkish coffee. The first place we visited was Sultan Ahmed Mosque. The tour guide, Mohammed, told us that it was also called the Blue Mosque. It is very beautiful.

The second place we visited in Istanbul was the Grand Bazaar. It is the biggest and oldest covered market in the world. My mother bought some silver jewelry and my father bought an amazing silk carpet. We had lunch in a restaurant called "Kebab". We had rice and grilled fish. For dessert, we had the yummy Turkish ice cream.

In the evening, the tour guide took us to the Bosphorus Bridge. We were really amazed by the view of the bridge connecting Asia and Europe. I think we will never forget this holiday.
